

Horses are dying and suffering in our own backyard!

Despite years of complaints, owners of a Clinton, Maine farm continue to neglect dozens of horses.

Maine has the 2nd toughest animal welfare laws in the country, but the state allows this farm to continue its devastating operation.

Read more about the scene in Clinton, the documented history of complaints, neglect, and the state's complacency at NickerNews.net

Horses can't dial...Please make calls and take action on their behalf!

